The Sportsbook House Rules apply in relation to the markets offered and bets placed on the FanDuel Sportsbook Website and the FanDuel Sportsbook Betting Apps as well as at the FanDuel Sportsbook retail location at New Meadowlands Racetrack.

The Sportsbook House Rules consist of the following:

1. This Introduction section (Part A);

2. The General Rules (set out in Part B below); and

3. The Specific Sports Rules (set out in Part C below - these apply to certain sports).

4. The General Rules apply to all bets on the aforementioned products unless stated otherwise in the Specific Sports Rules. If there is any inconsistency between the Specific Sports Rules and the General Rules, the Specific Sports Rules shall prevail. The General Rules will apply in respect of any category of bets or markets not referred to in the Specific Sports Rules (for example, special bets or beach volleyball).

FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to amend the Sportsbook House Rules at any time subject to the regulatory approval of the NJDGE. Any such revision will be binding and effective immediately on the posting out to customers of such rule changes and any bets accepted after the rule changes have been posted shall be governed by the new Sportsbook House Rules.

3. Wager Type Calculations

Calculations for wager types are as follows:

1. Moneyline payoff: The money line is expressed as a 3-digit number. For example, -120 means a player must bet $120 for every $100 they wish to win, and multiples thereof. Or +150 means a player will win $150 for every $100 bet.
2. Point spread payoff: The point spread is expressed as a 3-digit number. For example, -110 means a player must bet $110 for every $100 they wish to win. Or, +225 means a player will win $225 for every $100 bet.
3. Parlay payoff - Odds will be calculated based on the prices of the individual selections.
4. Teaser payoff - Odds are derived from a fixed payout chart.

4. Notification of Odds or Line Changes

Customers will be notified of odds or line changes in the following manner:

1. Posted odds will be changed automatically on the electronic boards.
2. Posted odds will be changed manually on all handwritten boards.

6. In-Play Betting

1. If a market is not scheduled to be turned in-playbut FanDuel Sportsbook fails to suspend the market at the relevant time, then:
 1. if the event has a scheduled 'off' time, all bets matched after that scheduled off time will be void; and
 2. if the event does not have a scheduled 'off' time, FanDuel Sportsbook will use its reasonable efforts to ascertain the time of the actual 'off' and all bets after the time of the 'off' determined by FanDuel Sportsbook will be void.
2. FanDuel Sportsbook aims to use its reasonable efforts to suspend in-play markets at the start of and at the end of the event. However, FanDuel Sportsbook does not guarantee that such markets will be suspended at the relevant time.
3. FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right at its absolute discretion to part-suspend or fully suspend outcomes/selections in a market that has been turned in-play.
4. FanDuel Sportsbook customers are responsible for managing their in-play bets at all times.
5. For the purposes of in-play betting, customers should be aware that transmissions described as "live" by some broadcasters may actually be delayed or pre-recorded. The extent of any delay may vary depending on the set-up through which they are receiving pictures or data. Please also be aware that, for operational reasons, bet requests made in-play may take slightly longer to process.
6. If FanDuel Sportsbook accepts a bet on a market for which the outcome has already been determined, then that bet shall be deemed void (and no winnings shall be payable in respect of it) regardless of the bet being a win, lose or push.
7. FanDuel cannot guarantee the accuracy or timeliness of live scores, time remaining and the status of games displayed on the Websites and the Betting Apps in connection with live betting, which may come from third parties not controlled by FanDuel. We accept no liability for the incorrect display of this information. If you rely on this data to place bets, you do so entirely at your own risk.

7. Results and Market Settlement

1. General

1. Where the Specific Sports Rules do not specify how and on what basis a market will be settled, markets will be settled on the official result of the relevant governing body regardless of any subsequent disqualification or amendment to the result.
2. If no official result of a relevant governing body is available, the result will be determined by FanDuel Sportsbook (acting reasonably) using information from independent sources. In such cases, if any new information comes into the public domain within 48 hours of settlement, then FanDuel Sportsbook shall (acting reasonably) determine either:
 1. whether the market should be reinstated or resettled in light of this new information; or
 2. whether or not to wait for further information before deciding whether to reinstate or resettle the market. Except where FanDuel Sportsbook has

2. If no official result of a relevant governing body is available, the result will be determined by FanDuel Sportsbook (acting reasonably) using information from independent sources. In such cases, if any new information comes into the public domain within 48 hours of settlement, then FanDuel Sportsbook shall (acting reasonably) determine either:

1. whether the market should be reinstated or resettled in light of this new information; or
2. whether or not to wait for further information before deciding whether to reinstate or resettle the market. Except where FanDuel Sportsbook has announced that it is waiting for further information, any information that comes into the public domain more than 48 hours after a market has been settled shall not be considered by FanDuel Sportsbook (regardless of whether or not such information may have led to a different result).

3. In the event of any uncertainty about any result or potential result, FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to suspend settlement of any market for an unlimited period until the uncertainty can be resolved to the reasonable satisfaction of FanDuel Sportsbook. FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to void any market if the uncertainty regarding settlement cannot be resolved to FanDuel Sportsbook's reasonable satisfaction.

4. In the event of a withdrawal of a selection after the start of an event due to such selection testing positive for a virus or other disease, all wagers on that selection shall be void.

5. All-In Betting - All-In' means that regardless of whether or not a particular competitor or team or member of a team starts or completes the event on which a bet is placed, all bets stand and no refunds will be payable. Clients will be notified if a market is All-In via Blurbs, Market title and/or Selection name.

6. In the event a player, team or selection are deemed the winner of a specified Outright market with one winner (e.g. NCAA Men's Basketball Championship) but were not offered for betting due to state regulations forbidding betting on that player, team or selection then all bets placed on that market will be void. This does not include cashed out bets, which will be settled at the specified cash out offer received by the customer. For markets with multiple winners (e.g. To Make Final Four), if a non-listed player, team or selection wins, then all bets are action.

7. Weekly/Daily specials: All relevant games must be played to a natural completion for wagers to stand. In the event one or more game(s) are postponed and/or have a venue change, all wagers in the relevant market will be refunded.

8. Regarding player markets. Additional to the rules above, all listed players must be active for wagers to stand. If one or more player(s) listed do not play, all wagers will be refunded.

2. Resettlements

1. Markets are generally settled shortly after the end of the event in question. FanDuel Sportsbook may settle (or part-settle) some markets before the official result is declared purely as a customer service benefit. However, FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to amend the settlement of the market if:
 1. the official result is different to the result on which FanDuel Sportsbook initially settled the market; or
 2. if the whole market is eventually voided (e.g. for an abandoned event).
2. FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to reverse the settlement of a market if a market is settled in error (for example, a human or technical error).
3. If FanDuel Sportsbook resettles a market, this may lead to amendments being made to a customer's balance and/or the deduction of funds from a customer's Account to reflect changes in market settlement.
4. FanDuel Sportsbook will settle markets on the basis that it obtains the relevant information once the outcome has been determined. If this information is not obtained, or if there is an obvious error in the information, the settlement of the bet offer will be based on other public information/ official sources at the reasonable discretion of FanDuel Sportsbook.
5. FanDuel Sportsbook may be required by law to seek approval with the relevant regulatory body before making any amendments to a price or bet status.

3. Non-Runners

1. Unless stated otherwise, sports bets are accepted on a "non-runner, no bet" basis. This means that stakes will be refunded on a player, team or other competitor that is withdrawn prior to the start of an event. If you have placed a bet on a sporting event run on a "non-runner, no bet" basis and a player, team or other competitor (on which you did not place your bet) is withdrawn, suspended or disqualified from that event, we may apply relevant deductions to your winnings (based on the price of the player, team or other competitor that is withdrawn referenced in the table below).
2. Where specified, certain markets will be offered on an "all-in compete or not" basis. This means that, if a player, team or other competitor is withdrawn from an event (whether he, she or it pulls out of the event, is suspended or disqualified from it or otherwise) before he, she or it has taken part in the event, then any bet placed on that player, team or competitor (as applicable) will be deemed a losing bet.
3. If an event is specified as "fixed draw" and a team, player or other competitor is withdrawn, suspended or disqualified from that event, we reserve the right to settle any bets on the subsequent prices once the market has been revised without the withdrawn team/player.
4. If a player, team or other competitor has taken any part in a sporting event once it has officially started and then fails to complete that event for any reason, any bet placed on that player, team or other competitor will be deemed live (i.e. bets on that player, team or other competitor will not be voided).

8. Unexpected Events and Other Changes

To the extent there is any inconsistency between the general rules contained in this Part B, Section 8 and the Specific Sports Rules applying to a specific event, the following general rules will prevail:

1. If an event or events occur beyond the reasonable control of the FanDuel Sportsbook such as an epidemic, pandemic, flood, fire, earthquake, element of nature or act of God, act of war, terrorism, riot, rebellion, strike, blockade, labor disruption or other cause, that materially impact any sporting or other event (or a series of events in a season), which is the subject of a contingency or outcome of a market offered by the FanDuel Sportsbook, the FanDuel Sportsbook may, acting in good faith, exercise its discretion to void, cancel, restrict or otherwise alter or adjust the payout (in whole or in part) of the affected wager(s) placed on the relevant market (including, without limitation, retrospectively take any of the actions contemplated once a bet has been placed and before or after it has been resolved). For the avoidance of doubt, "impact" on any sporting or other event includes, without limitation:
 1. Any reduction in the number of games or matches in a season;
 2. Any material change in the length of a game or match or when the matches are played;
 3. A material change to the format or rules of the relevant event(s), series or competitions as determined by the relevant sports body; or
 4. A change in the location of any match, game or event.

9. Futures Settlement

1. Some markets have different rules and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, where a market has no rules in the Specific Sports Rules in relation to how and on what basis a futures market will be settled the following shall apply.
 2. Where a season or tournament is unexpectedly shortened all futures markets/bets will be settled in accordance with the official ruling of the relevant governing body after the postponement, subject to i. and ii. below, so long as the ruling is made within 90 days after the scheduled completion date:
 1. Unless the outcome has unequivocally been determined prior to the interruption of the season - example Team A were prior to the postponement unable to win more than x regular season games, bets on over x games will be settled as a loser and bets on under x wins settled as winners;
 2. Where the competition format has materially changed after the postponement and any outcome that was prior to the postponement possible is no longer made possible due to the format change - example Team B were mathematically able to make playoffs prior to the postponement however a new playoff format announced after the postponement prevented any opportunity to make playoffs, all bets on Team B to make and miss playoffs will be void.
 3. Where a league/ governing body officially suspends a season and rules for recording purposes that all stats are final on the shortened season, futures will be settled in accordance with the official ruling. If deemed completed by the relevant governing body, winners will be settled as so, and remaining selections void unless the outcome has unequivocally been determined prior to the suspension of the season or stated by the relevant governing body.

1. Example: 2010/2011 NHL Regular season points. Detroit Red Wings Overall Under 74.5 points settled as Under 74.5 as the winning selection. Default fully.

be void.

3. Where a league/ governing body officially suspends a season and rules for recording purposes that all stats are final on the shortened season, futures will be settled in accordance with the official ruling. If deemed completed by the relevant governing body, winners will be settled as so, and remaining selections void unless the outcome has unequivocally been determined prior to the suspension of the season or stated by the relevant governing body:
 1. Example: 2019/20 NHL Regular season points: Detroit Red Wings Over/Under 74.5 points settled as Under 74.5 as the winning selection. Result fully determined prior to season suspension (Detroit Red Wings on 39 points prior to suspension. Only 24 points on offer if season was to resume thus result fully determined as Under 74.5).
 2. Example: 2019/20 NHL Regular season points: Boston Bruins Over/Under 100.5 points. Boston Bruins had recorded 100 points prior to season suspension. Result undetermined if season wasn't to resume and thus voided.
 3. Example: 2019/20 Rocket Richard Trophy. Ovechkin/Pastrnak settled as winners and all other selections settled as losers. Both players leading prior to season suspension and ruled as winners and deemed completed as per governing body.
3. Bets on markets that don't reach completion before the interruption but have already been unconditionally determined will be settled as such. For example, if a team is mathematically eliminated from playoffs prior to the interruption then bets on them to miss the playoffs are winners whereas bets on them to make the playoffs or win the Championship are losers.
4. If the ruling governing body announces within 90 days of the original scheduled completion date, the rescheduling of a tournament or competition all bets on the original competition will remain active. At the customer's request, FanDuel Sportsbook will void bets made on the originally scheduled tournament or competition but only before the start of the rescheduled competition. In the event that no official ruling is made postponing the competition or tournament within 90 days of the original scheduled completion date all bets will be void.
 1. Example: Euro 2020 Soccer Tournament was rescheduled to take place in 2021 all bets prior to the postponement remained active unless a customer contacted to void the bet prior to the start of the tournament in 2021.
 2. Example: There is no announcement from the International Tennis Federation by September 5, 2020 on the rescheduling of the 2020 French Open, all futures bets on the French Open 2020 will be void.

10. Abandonments, Cancellations, Postponements, Forfeits

1. Some markets have different rules and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, where a market has no rules in the Specific Sports Rules in relation to an abandonment, cancellation and/or postponement the following shall apply:
 2. In relation to any match, fixture, game, individual event, race or similar: If the event is not completed within 48 hours after the scheduled completion date, then all bets on markets for this event will be void, except for bets on any markets that have been unconditionally determined. All bets on an event that is officially deemed a forfeit will be void.
 3. In relation to any tournament, competition or similar: If the event is not completed within 24 hours following the scheduled completion date of the event, then any markets relating to the event will be settled in accordance with the official ruling of the relevant governing body, providing such a decision is given within 90 days after the scheduled completion date. If no official ruling is announced in this 90 day period, then bets on any market relating to this event will be void, except for bets on any markets which have been unconditionally determined. If a market is to be voided but has been part-settled as a courtesy to FanDuel Sportsbook customers, then such part-settled bets will be reversed and all bets on the market will be void.
 4. If there is no further sporting action in any market that does not contain the selection 'draw' or 'tie', all bets placed after this conclusion of action will be voided (e.g. If the game ends in a draw and the two selections that are named in the market are "Team A" and "Team B" without a "Draw" or "Tie" selection - the bet on either Team A or B will be Voided).
 5. FanDuel Sportsbook will decide (acting reasonably) whether a market relates to a match (or similar) or a tournament (or similar). However, by way of example, the following shall apply:
 1. Major League Soccer Cup = tournament;
 2. NFL AFC West = tournament;
 3. Ryder Cup outright = tournament;
 4. Golf tournament outright = tournament;
 5. Tennis Tournament outright = tournament;
 6. Motor Race (e.g. Indianapolis 500) = match;
 7. NBA Finals = match;
 8. NBA Championship = tournament.

11. Change of Venue

1. Some markets have different rules and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, if change of venue is not dealt with in the Specific Sports Rules then the following shall apply:
 1. For any team sport: if the scheduled venue is changed after a bet is placed, all bets will be void only if the new venue is a home ground of the original away team (or in the case of international matches, only if the venue changes to a venue in a different country).
 2. For all categories or markets other than team sports: if the scheduled venue is changed after a bet is placed, all bets will stand.
3. If there is a change in the type of scheduled surface (E.g. a field hockey match switching from grass to astro-turf) after a bet is placed, all bets will stand.

12. Periods of Time

1. Some markets have different rules and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, if not dealt with in the Specific Sports Rules then the following shall apply:
 2. If the scheduled duration of an event is changed after a bet is placed but before the start of the event, then all bets will be void.

12. Periods of Time

1. Some markets have different rules and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, if not dealt with in the Specific Sports Rules then the following shall apply.
2. If the scheduled duration of an event is changed after a bet is placed but before the start of the event, then all bets will be void.
3. Some markets refer to the length of time until an occurrence in the event (e.g. time of first goal). If an event happens in stoppage or injury time after any regular time period then it will be deemed to have occurred at the end of the regular time period. For example, if a goal is scored in first half stoppage-time in a soccer match it will be deemed to have occurred on 45 minutes.
4. All bets apply to the relevant full 'regular time' period including stoppage time. Any extra-time and/or penalty shoot-out is not included.
5. References within these Rules and Regulations to a particular number of 'days' shall mean the end of the day local time after the expiration of the specified number of days. For example, if a rugby match is scheduled for the 1st of December, then the rule that allows the match to be completed within 48 hours after the scheduled completion date (see Paragraph 3 above) would mean that the deadline for completion of that match would be 11:59:59 p.m. on the 4th of December.

13. "To Qualify" Markets

1. Some sports/markets have different rules and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, if not dealt with in the Specific Sports Rules then the following shall apply.
2. Any 'to qualify' market (e.g., "to reach the final" markets) will be determined by the competitor or team that progresses, whether or not they take part in the next round or event for which they have qualified. Markets will be settled after the qualifying stage and any subsequent disqualification or amendment to the result will not count.

14. Dead Heats

1. Unless stated otherwise in the Specific Sports Rules the Dead Heat Rule applies to bets on a market where there are more winners than expected. In the event of a dead heat, your returns are calculated using the following method:
 1. Returns = (Original Stake * (Number of Expected Winners / Number of Actual Winners)) * Original Odds.
2. If a "dead-heat" between two selections is declared on any event, half the stake is applied to the selection at full odds and the other half is lost. If more than two "dead-heats" are declared, the stake is proportioned accordingly.
3. There are multiple examples of this in a golf tournament, for example, eleven players finishing in the Top 10 of a golf tournament, with three players tied for 9th place, would result in a deduction in payout. In this example the 3 players tied for 9th are occupying two positions (9th and 10th) therefore your initial stake is reduced by 2/3rds. (2 places divided by 3 players) and your returns are calculated using the original odds.
4. If your initial stake was $20 at odds of +200 and your player tied for 9th in the example above your returns are calculated using the following method:
 1. $($20 * (2/3)) * +200 = \40 .
5. If one or more legs of a parlay is affected by a "Dead-Heat" then the original parlay stake is reduced accordingly. For example, if one leg of a three-leg parlay is affected by a dead heat with four players tied for one place, the original parlay stake would be divided by four and the returns calculated using the original parlay odds.

15. Errors

1. FanDuel Sportsbook makes every effort to ensure that it does not make any errors when accepting bets. However, if as a result of technical or system problems or human error, a bet is accepted that is at odds (which includes handicap provisions or similar) and/or is on terms that are either:
 1. materially different from those available in the general betting market at the time the bet was made; or
 2. clearly incorrect given the chance of the event occurring at the time the bet was made including, in either case, because the bet was placed after the start of an event, because the market was not displaying or reflecting in-play status, or because of any other reason, then the FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to either (i) correct any obvious errors by settling winning bets at the 'correct price,' as reasonably determined by FanDuel Sportsbook, or (ii) void any bet placed where such errors have occurred.
2. If FanDuel Sportsbook accepts a bet on a market for which the outcome has already been determined, then that bet shall be deemed void (and no winnings shall be payable in respect of it).
3. If FanDuel Sportsbook accepts a bet on a market where the incorrect teams are listed and/or listed in the incorrect order (i.e. Home Team listed as Away) FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to void such wagers, regardless of the outcome of the event.

16. Duplicate Events

1. In the event that odds for the same exact game are displayed on the FanDuel Sportsbook more than once (regardless of whether the markets are related and/or displayed odds are different), FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to cancel any correlated parlay bets placed on both/multiple events, regardless of whether the markets and/or displayed odds are different.
2. Single Bets placed individually on the above markets will be settled in accordance with official results.

17. Maximum Winnings

1. For all events offered, the maximum winning limit per bet (e.g., straight, parlay, SGP, or other) is $1 million US Dollars.
2. The maximum winnings limit will apply to any one customer, or group of customers acting together, wagering on the same combination of selections, regardless of whether or not such bets are struck separately, at a range of different prices, on different days and through a number of different accounts. If FanDuel Sportsbook believes that a number of bets have been placed in this way, the total payment of all those bets combined will be limited to one single maximum winnings.

18. Parlays

1. A parlay bet consists of a number of legs. A leg is defined as one or more chosen selections in any individual event market.

If FanDuel Sportsbook believes that a number of bets have been placed in this way, the total payment of all those bets combined will be limited to one single maximum winnings.

18. Parlays

1. A parlay bet consists of a number of legs. A leg is defined as one or more chosen selections in any individual event market.
2. FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right in its sole discretion not to accept certain parlay bets or to scale back stakes.
3. All parlay bets placed are subject to the Sportsbook Rules that apply to each individual sport that relates to any leg of any parlay bet.
4. If any selection in any leg is a non-runner or otherwise void under the Sportsbook Rules (e.g. an abandoned match) then all bets on that individual leg will be void and the parlay bet shall be adjusted accordingly. For example a treble including one void leg will become a double. If that voided leg means that an individual bet within a parlay becomes a single bet, then this single bet will stand. Same Game Parlays (SGP's) will be settled in the same manner. If a selection within the wager is voided, the wager odds will be re-calculated using the remaining legs.
5. Odds Boosts that include parlay bets are subject to the Odds Boost settlement rules set forth in Section 21 below.
6. Parlay bets combining different selections within the same event are not accepted when there are related contingencies (i.e. where the outcome of one event is likely to affect the odds on the outcome of another event). The rejection of related contingency bets may happen automatically at the bet placement stage. However, if such a bet is taken in error, FanDuel Sportsbook may settle the individual bet combinations which include two or more of the related contingency selections, as single bets.
7. Round Robin wagers cannot include selections from the same event. If selections from the same event are incorrectly wagered upon in a round robin - FanDuel Sportsbook may settle the wager as if only one of the selections from the event was included.

19. Teasers

1. In the event of one teaser leg resulting in a push or void, the following settlement will take place:
 1. Two Team Teaser: the entire teaser is voided and the bet will be refunded.
 2. Any other Teaser: the teaser has action and the teaser payout will be recalculated removing the voided or push legs.

20. Cash Out

1. Cash Out is a feature which is offered on various singles and multiples FanDuel Sportsbook bets. Cash Out allows you to amend your original bet and lock in a profit or a loss by settling your bet (or a portion of your bet) early, without having to wait for the event to finish.
2. If you make a Cash Out request, you will be notified whether or not your request has been successful. Your request to Cash Out is not guaranteed to be accepted and may be unsuccessful if, for example, the market suspends, or the odds move before your request has been processed.
3. If your Cash Out request is successful, a 'success' message will be shown and your bet (or the relevant portion of your bet) will be settled immediately and any winnings returned to your account equal to the amount shown on the Cash Out button. Note that this includes the original stake (or portion of your stake) and the total amount returned to your account will be the amount shown on the Cash Out button. For a full Cash Out, the bet is settled and any subsequent events will have no impact on the amount returned to your account. For a partial Cash Out, part of your bet is settled and any subsequent events will only impact on the portion of your bet which you have not Cashed Out.
4. If your Cash Out request is unsuccessful, a message will be shown which gives the reason why and a new Cash Out offer may be offered to you.
5. Cash Out requests made in-play may take longer to process because of the in-play bet delay.
6. Cash Out is not currently available on all FanDuel Sportsbook markets - a Cash Out icon will be displayed for the markets that support Cash Out. See the Help page for more details on when Cash Out may not be available. FanDuel Sportsbook will not be liable for any losses that may arise from the cash out feature being unavailable for any reason.
7. Using Cash Out may mean you will opt out of and no longer be eligible for a particular promotion. See the terms and conditions of the promotion for further details.
8. FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to reverse the settlement of a Cash Out if the bet or a market is settled in error (for example, a human or technical error). If FanDuel Sportsbook resettles a bet, this may lead to amendments being made to a customer's balance to reflect changes in bet settlement. If an incorrect Cash Out offer is presented to a customer and then accepted due to a technical fault, FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to resettle the bet using the correct Cash Out offer.
9. FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to suspend or disable the Cash Out feature at any time.

3. We reserve the right to void any bet with an Odds Boost if: (i) the enhanced price was intended to apply to pre-match bets only and (ii) we erroneously accepted the bet, at its enhanced price, after the relevant event started.
4. For Odds Boost parlays, if any selection in any leg is a non-runner or otherwise void under the Sportsbook House Rules then the entire Odds Boost bet will be void regardless of the outcome of other selections in the parlay.
5. In the event of a clear and obvious wording or pricing error for an enhanced bet, we will (in accordance with our usual settlement rules) aim to settle the bet at the price at which we intended to offer, and/or pursuant to the wording which was clearly intended to relate to, the relevant bet.
6. We reserve the right to withdraw any Odds Boosts and edit the respective odds on the enhanced price.
7. Unless stated in the Odds Boost, the bets refer to the next official event that the listed team/participant(s) are scheduled to participate in.
8. Markets can tend to fluctuate in price quite often which can sometimes lead to the Odds Boost price not representing any enhanced value in comparison to its original markets.

 1. Money Line bets will be settled as per the "4.5 Innings Rule";
 2. Bets on markets that are unequivocally determined will stand (example: bets on 1st inning total runs scored will remain settled as determined if the game gets called in the 3rd inning);
 3. All other markets (including but not limited to Run Line and Total Runs) will be void if not already unequivocally determined, unless a minimum of 7 innings are played, or 6.5 innings should the home team be leading at the commencement of the bottom of the 7th inning.
 4. The above listed rules will govern settlement of all scheduled 7 inning games, including any that are shortened after first pitch.
2. Action vs. Listed Pitchers
 1. When wagering on baseball Money Lines, you may choose to apply one of the following methods to each wager:
 2. Action: All Money Line wagers are defaulted to "Action" meaning all wagers struck will stand if a pitcher change occurs. Wagers will be honored at the odds at bet placement and settled as normal.
 3. One Specified Pitcher (Home Listed/Away Listed): A wager on or against one Listed Pitcher, regardless of the other Listed Pitcher. If the Listed Pitcher does not start, the wager is "No Action" and will be refunded.
 4. Both Specified Pitchers: A wager in which both Listed Pitchers must start the game. If both actual starting pitchers are not the ones listed on the wagering ticket, the wager will be deemed "No Action" and refunded.
 5. All other game markets are considered "Action" and wagers will remain open regardless of any personnel change.
 6. Listed Pitchers are not relevant to World Baseball markets and bets on such markets will stand regardless of whether any Listed Pitchers do in fact start. Should a game end in a tie, Money Line wagers will be graded as a push with all other markets settled as per the result.
3. Player Props
 1. For all MLB player markets, wagers will be void as per below (unless explicitly stated in market specific rules):
 2. Pitcher Markets: If the listed pitcher does not start the game.
 3. Batter Markets (Hits, Runs, etc.): if the listed player does not record a plate appearance.
 4. To Hit a Home Run & Home Run / Game Winner Parlay: Listed players must record at least 1 plate appearance for bets to stand. If listed players do not record a plate appearance, bets on that player will be void. Listed pitchers have no bearing on this market.
 5. Result of Plate Appearance: Listed players must record the relevant plate appearance for bets to stand. If listed players do not record a plate appearance, bets on that player will be void. If a player is substituted out of the game between plate appearances, bets on plate appearances that have already occurred will stand. However, bets on future plate appearance markets will be voided. For settlement purposes, hit by pitches (HBPs) will be settled as Walk/HBP. A fielder's choice, catcher's interference, or reach on error will all be ruled as an "Any Other Outcome." A pitch must be thrown in the plate appearance for bets to be action. If no pitch is thrown in the plate appearance (i.e., the pitching team elects to intentionally walk the batter before any pitches are thrown) bets on the market will be void. This will not impact other markets affected by the result (i.e., the intentional walk results in an RBI for the batter).
 6. Plate Appearance Grouped: Listed players must record the relevant plate appearance for bets to stand. If listed players do not record a plate appearance, bets on that player will be void. If a player is substituted out of the game between plate appearances, bets on plate appearances that have already occurred will stand. However, bets on future plate appearance markets will be voided. For settlement purposes, hit by pitches (HBPs) will be settled as Walk/HBP. A fielder's choice, catcher's interference, or reach on error will all be ruled as an "other outcome." A pitch must be thrown in the plate appearance for bets to be action. If no pitch is thrown in the plate appearance (i.e., the pitching team elects to intentionally walk the batter before any pitches are thrown) bets on the market will be void. This shall not however impact other markets which are impacted by the result (i.e., the intentional walk results in an RBI for the batter).
 7. Batter to Reach Base: Settled on whether the batter will reach base (e.g. has scored or is safely standing on a base at the conclusion of the listed plate appearance). Winning selections include all home runs, and any other outcomes where the listed batter is not ruled out at the conclusion of the play. 9. To Hit Next Home Run: Listed position players must record at least one plate appearance for bets to stand. If listed players do not record a plate appearance, bets on that player will be void. Once a player has recorded a plate appearance, wagers made on that player for all subsequent indices (Player to Hit 3rd Home Run, 4th Home Run, etc.) will stand regardless of the number of plate appearances that player ultimately records in the game. If no "Next Home Run" is hit, "No Xth Home Run" will be deemed the winning selection.

If a singular pitcher is listed in the market, that pitcher must individually accomplish the feat for bets to be winners. If the market lists the team's name (e.g., Team X to pitch a Quality Start), rather than the name of an individual pitcher (e.g., Pitcher Y to pitch a Quality Start), then multiple pitchers may be used to accomplish the feat.

28. Player Performance Parlays: For pitchers, the listed pitcher must start for bets to stand. Bets will stand regardless of a change in status to the opposing listed pitcher. For batters, the listed player must record at least 1 plate appearance for bets to stand. If listed players do not record a plate appearance, bets on that player will be void. A change to the status of either listed pitcher will have no bearing on the settlement of any batter-specific player parlay.

A change to the status of either listed pitcher, or to either line-up, will have no bearing on the settlement of this market. Batted balls that result in the plate appearance ending (ex. hits/outs) will not be regarded as strikes for the purposes of settlement. If a pitcher or batter violation results in an automatic ball or strike to begin the at-bat, the market will be settled based off the outcome of the violation (e.g. if a pitcher violation results in an automatic ball to start the at-bat, 'Ball' will be settled as the winning selection).
30. Pitch Result: The pitch must be thrown by the listed pitcher against the listed batter, during the listed plate appearance for bets to have action. The pitch number is specific to the listed plate appearance. A pitch must be thrown in the listed plate appearance for the bets to have action. If a fighter fails to answer a bell for the next round then this will also be deemed a TKO. For betting purposes, KO/TKO options also include disqualification and retirement.

4. Technical Decision/Draw:

1. If a fight is scheduled for more than four rounds and, after four rounds, an accidental foul occurs which causes an injury (further to which the referee stops the fight), the fight will be deemed to have resulted in a technical decision in favor of the boxer who is ahead on the scorecards at the time the fight is stopped (and all markets on the fight will stand).
2. If the accidental injury / technical decision occurs during the first 4 rounds, all bets will be made void UNLESS the result of the relevant market has already been unequivocally determined or if the judges' scorecards are used to determine an official winner at ringside.

If an intentional foul causes an injury and the injury results in the fight being stopped in a later round: (i) the injured boxer will be deemed to have won by technical decision if he is ahead on the scorecards and (ii) the fight will result in a 'technical draw' if the injured boxer is behind or even on the score cards (and, for settlement purposes, the result of the fight will be deemed to be a draw).
4. For betting purposes, betting on rounds or a group of rounds is for a fighter to win by KO, TKO, disqualification or due to the other fighter retiring during that round or group of rounds. 3. Outright bets will be void on any named boxer who does not start the tournament. This rule does not apply to the reserve fighters.

11. GAA

1. If the venue of a match is other than is indicated on our website, the bet will stand provided the match has not been switched to the opponent's ground, in which case the match will be declared void.

2. Post-match inquiries into match results and subsequent changes or disqualification will be ignored for settlement purposes and will be settled on that day's match result.

3. Extra time not included (unless otherwise stated). Markets settled on the 60/70 minute result.

4. Any match abandoned before completion will be declared void unless an official result is declared by the governing body. All other markets will be deemed void unless their result is already determined.

7. Footballer/Hurler of the Year. This market will be settled based on the results of the official All star award ceremony.

9. Abandoned/Postponed Matches

1. Any match that is abandoned before completion of the match (i.e. 70 mins.) will be void unless an official result is declared by those teams' governing body within 24 hours of postponement, in which case that official result will govern win-draw-win market settlement. All other markets will be void unless their result is already decided. When an abandoned match(es) reduces the client's bet to below the permitted minimum for a list the bet will stand, with the void match(es) treated as non-runners for settling purposes. This ruling does not apply to bets involving first goalscorer which will stand provided a goal has been scored prior to abandonment. Bets on last goalscorer will be void in the event of abandonment. Total Points bets and goal bets will be voided unless the bet is already deemed a winner/loser before the match is abandoned.

2. If a match is postponed, all bets on that match will be voided unless it is rescheduled to take place within 72 hours of its originally scheduled start time. For the purpose of this rule, the scheduled start time of a match shall be that which is declared by the GAA Central Council, the individual provincial councils and/or the individual county boards which determine the applicable competition fixtures. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the start times declared by any of the foregoing, the order of priority shall be (in descending order): (i) the GAA Central Council then (ii) the individual provincial councils then (iii) the individual county boards.

10. Goalscorer Markets

1. In the event of a dispute over the award of a goal for first/last goalscorer or scorer special purposes, settlement will be in accordance with the result given by GAA within 48 hours of the final whistle. Any subsequent changes to the result will be ignored for settlement purposes.

3. Bets on last Goalscorer will be void if that player does not take part in the game.

4. Bets on Anytime Goalscorer will be void if the player does not take part in the game. Bets will stand if the player takes part in the game.

3. Top Championship Scorer market will be settled on the player who scores the most through the All Ireland Championship including qualifier and provincial series matches. All in, play or not.

12. Golf

1. General

1. Tournament bets will only be settled if 36 holes have been completed, and an official result has been declared. Should 36 holes not be completed then all bets on that event will be void except markets that have already been decided i.e. 'first round 3-balls, 'First Round Leader' etc.

2. Outcomes will be determined in accordance with the official result of the relevant governing body, regardless of any subsequent disqualification or amendment to the result (except if an amendment is announced within 24 hours of the initial settlement of the relevant market in order to correct an error in reporting the result).

3. Dead Heats apply for all golf markets in the event of 2 or more players finishing in the same position, except in the following situations:

1. A tie/draw option is offered.

2. The position is decided by an official playoff.

3. Upon a tie in the Tournament Match Betting market, stakes will be refunded.

4. Dead heat is a term that describes when two or more selections finish an event tied. If a "dead-heat" between two selections is declared on any event, half the stake is applied to the selection at full odds and the other half is lost. If more than two "dead-heats" are declared, the stake is proportioned accordingly.

1. For example:

1. You bet $100 at odds of +200 and 2 players tie for the same position.

1. Half the stake is lost -$50

2. The other half wins and is paid at the same odds. So $50 wins at +200

2. If 3 players tie for the same position then:

1. Two thirds of the stake is lost -$66.66

2. The remaining third $33.33 wins at +200

5. If a player does not start a tournament then all bets on that player will be void.

6. A player must complete at least one stroke in a market for bets to stand. If a player withdraws before completing a stroke, they will be considered as having not played and all bets on the player will be voided.

7. If a tournament is shortened and FanDuel Sportsbook settles the tournament markets then all bets matched after the last completed round will be void.

8. If a Tournament/Round is restarted from the beginning, all bets placed after the official off time will be void, except on markets which have been unconditionally determined, which will stand. Bets on 2 or 3 balls will only be void if matched after the tee time of the relevant 2 or 3 ball.

9. In the event of a postponed event, bets will stand provided the tournament takes place in the same calendar year.

10. For all "lie related" markets (e.g. Closest to the Pin, Number of Greens in Regulation, etc.) - the lie will be determined using league official data.

11. For all markets related to a single shot, bets will be voided if that shot does not take place.

2. Outright Winner

1. In the event of a play-off the result of the play-off will determine the winner of the tournament.

2. When more than one player shares the same lowest score in a tournament and there is no play-off, bets are settled by the normal dead heat method. See Section 12.1 above for dead heat example.

3. Any players who withdraw after completing at least one stroke are considered as players and are therefore losers, unless the player takes no more part in the tournament after the bet is placed.

3. 2/3 Balls

1. Players must complete at least one stroke for bets to stand.

2. In 2/3 ball betting the winner will be the player in the pairing or group with the lowest score over 18 holes.

3. Should a player in the 2/3 ball not tee-off all bets in that 2/3 ball are void. However should a player retire during the round after completing a stroke, he will be deemed to have played.

4. If a player posts a score but is later disqualified, all bets will be settled on the score that the player initially signs for that round. Signing of the card is deemed as the weigh-in and subsequent disqualification or amendment of result will be ignored for settlement purposes.

5. Odds for a tie are offered in 2 ball betting, therefore in the event of a tie bets on both players are losers and bets on the tie are winners. Dead heat rules apply in the event of a tie in 3 ball betting. See Section 12.1 for dead heat example.

6. Any tournament that applies the stableford scoring system, the highest point scorer during the round will be deemed the winner.

7. Should all players fail to complete the round then all bets will be void.

8. Mythical 2-balls:

1. In 'mythical 2 ball' betting the player/group with the lowest score over 18 holes is the winner.

2. Should a player in the 2 ball not tee-off all bets in that 2 ball are void. However, if a player starts his round but withdraws or is disqualified during any part of the round he is deemed to be a loser.

8. Mythical 2-balls:

1. In 'mythical 2 ball' betting the player/group with the lowest score over 18 holes is the winner.
2. Should a player in the 2 ball not tee-off all bets in that 2 ball are void. However, if a player starts his round but withdraws or is disqualified during any part of the round he is deemed to be a loser.
3. If a player posts a score but is later disqualified, all bets will be settled on the score that the player initially posts for that round.

2. All 72 holes must be completed. In the event of a reduction in the number of Rounds/Holes played all bets will be made void.

3. Wire to Wire Winner:

1. Settlement is based on a player leading after Rounds 1, 2 and 3 (ties included) and winning the Tournament.
2. All 72 holes must be completed. In the event of a reduction in the number of Rounds/Holes played all bets will be made void.

5. Top X Finish (Top 5/10/20/etc.)

1. Dead heat rules apply for settlement of all Top X markets:

1. For example:

1. You bet $100 at odds of +150 for a player to finish in the Top 20, and 5 players finish in a tie for 19th:
1. Two fifths of the bet has won (19th & 20th) and three fifths have lost (21st, 22nd and 23rd);
2. Thus three fifths of the stake is lost (-$60); and
3. Two fifths of the stake win and is paid at the same odds, thus $40 wins at +150.

2. Players must complete at least one stroke for bets to stand.

3. Finishing position is decided by result posted by the governing body of that tournament (i.e. PGA Tour, DP World Tour).

4. If a player is disqualified, retires injured or withdraws they will be deemed to have finished last.

5. Should 36 holes (or 54 holes in the case of a 3 Round cut) not be completed then all bets on this market will be void.

6. Top Player Betting (e.g. Top US Player, Top European Player) & Tournament Group Betting

7. Tournament Match Betting

1. In Tournament match betting the winner will be the player with the highest placing at the end of the tournament.

2. Players must complete at least one stroke for bets to stand.

3. If both players miss the cut, then the one with the lowest score will be deemed the winner.

4. If a player withdraws or is disqualified after making the cut, when his opponent has already missed the cut, the disqualified or withdrawn player is deemed the winner.

5. If a player withdraws or is disqualified before the cut is made the other player is deemed the winner.

6. In the event of a tie in tournament match betting, stakes are refunded

8. Tournament Group Betting

1. In Tournament group betting the winner will be the player with the highest placing at the end of the tournament. Players missing the cut will be eliminated. If all listed players miss the cut the player with the lowest score at the cut will be deemed the winner.

2. Players must complete at least one stroke for bets to stand.

3. In the event of a tie in tournament groups, dead heat rules apply.

4. In the event of a listed player being withdrawn prior to the first round, then the market will be void.

9. To Make/Miss the Cut

1. Players who are disqualified or withdraw before they complete 36 holes (or 54 holes in the case of a 3 Round cut) are deemed to have missed the cut.

2. Players who are disqualified or withdraw after the cut will be deemed to have made the cut.

3. If there is more than one cut in a tournament, settlement will be based on whether the player has made or missed the first cut.

4. Should 36 holes (or 54 holes in the case of a 3 Round cut) not be completed then all bets on this market will be void.

1. Bets on players to make/miss the cut will be settled on the official result posted on the tour sites.

 2. If the tournament allows for halved matches, then the market will be settled as a "half"; or
 3. If the tournament allows for halved matches, and there is no half/tie/draw option offered, then stakes on the match betting will be refunded.
 2. For team matchplay events, bets on the winner of any singles match will be void if that match does not reach its natural conclusion.  3. Markets are settled on completion of the hole and any subsequent penalties or disqualification will not be taken into account.
13. Big X v. The Field
 1. If any of the players quoted as part of the Big "X" are non runners, bets will be void on this market.
14. Total Majors Won/To Win a Major
 1. Players must play all four majors for bets to stand.
15. "To Qualify" Markets
 1. In any 'To Qualify' market for any tournament the winners are the number of golfers that qualify for the tournament, whether they compete in the tournament or not. Markets will be settled after the qualifying stage and any subsequent disqualification or amendment to results will not count.

2. Olympic Field Hockey - Match betting will be settled based on the result at the end of 60 minutes. In the event of a two-way match betting/to qualify market being offered, then this will be settled on whichever team progresses.

3. Olympic Rugby 7s - all bets will be settled according to rugby 7s rules within the 'Rugby Union and Rugby League' section.

21. Rowing

3. Where there is a presentation ceremony, markets will be settled on the official result of the relevant governing body at the time of the ceremony, regardless of any subsequent disqualification or amendment to the result.

4. If there is no presentation ceremony, outcomes will be determined in accordance with the official result of the relevant governing body, regardless of any subsequent disqualification or amendment to the result (except if an amendment is announced within 24 hours of the initial settlement of the relevant market in order to correct an error in reporting the result).

22. Rugby Union and Rugby League

1. Rugby Union Rules

1. Unless otherwise stated, all rugby union bets are settled on 80 minutes' play plus any injury time.

2. For Rugby 7s tournaments, all bets are settled on the result at the end of Normal/Regular time (except halftime, first half, overtime and penalty shootout markets).

3. If a match is postponed, bets will stand until 48 hours from the original kick off time, after which time they will be void.

1. Unless otherwise stated, all rugby union bets are settled on 80 minutes' play plus any injury time.
2. For Rugby 7s tournaments, all bets are settled on the result at the end of Normal/Regular time (except halftime, first half, overtime and penalty shootout markets).
3. If a match is postponed, bets will stand until 48 hours from the original kick off time, after which time they will be void.
4. If the venue is changed from the one advertised, all bets on that match are void.
5. Any parlay bet reduced by an abandoned, postponed or re-arranged match will stand on the remaining selections.
6. If a match starts but is abandoned before its completion, all bets will be void unless an official result is declared by the applicable governing body. Where an official result has been declared by the official governing body, that official result will govern match and point spread (handicap) market settlement but all other markets will be void unless their result has already been determined at the point of abandonment (i.e. at the point of abandonment, it would not have been possible for the outcome of the bet to change had the match continued to its natural conclusion). By way of example, if 37 points have been scored at the time a match is abandoned: (i) a bet placed on 35 points or more to be scored would be settled as a winning bet, (ii) a bet placed on 30-35 points to be scored would be settled as a losing bet and (iii) a bet placed on 40-45 points to be scored would be void. In such circumstances, bets on last tryscorer / team to score last / team to score last try / last scoring play would all be void.
7. Outright Bets: all bets placed on outright markets will be settled on official tournament results. For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur then all bets on that competitor are void and monies will be returned. Any bets placed after a points deduction may have prices adjusted accordingly.
8. All outright markets which state "Regular Season" (or similar) are deemed to mean the official standings of teams after all matches of the predetermined season are played and before any playoff matches have commenced.
9. Tournament Tries/Points: Bets will apply to all playing time, including any extra time in any match where an official result is declared.
10. To Miss Top 2 / Top 4 / Top 8: For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur, then all bets on that competitor are void.
11. Tryscorers: All bets will be refunded if they were placed on players not included in the official match day 22 or 23 (depending on the competition). If a substitute is not on the field before the first try is scored then bets on that player will be void in the 'First Tryscorer', 'First Team Tryscorer' and 'First Tryscorer Insurebet' markets. If a substitute comes on at any stage during the game, they will be considered 'All In' for all other tryscorer markets. If they do not take any part in the game, they will be void in all tryscorer markets.
12. First/Last Tryscorer: In the event of a penalty try being the first / last try scored, we will pay out on the penalty try option if offered. If the penalty try option is not offered, we will pay out, for "First Try" markets, on the next tryscorer following the penalty try (where the first try is a penalty try) and, for "Last Try" markets, on the tryscorer immediately preceding the penalty try (where the last try is a penalty try). For 'Xth try scorer' markets, if the penalty try option is not offered, we will void any bets placed on the Xth try to be scored by a particular player if that try is in fact a penalty try. If there is no try scored after the penalty try then "First Try" and "Last Try" markets will be void.
13. First Tryscorer Insurebet: If the player fails to score the first try but does score a try in the match then the bet stake will be returned. If a substitute is not on the field before the first try is scored then bets on that player will be void.
14. Position to Score First Try: In the event of a penalty try being the first try scored, we will pay out on the position of the next tryscorer for "Position to Score First Try" markets. For 'Position to score xth Try' markets, in the event of a penalty try, we will pay out on the position which scores the next try (e.g. if the first try scored in a match is a penalty try and the second try is scored by a 'forward', then a 'forward' will be deemed to have scored both the first and second tries). If there is no try scored after the penalty try then this market will be void.
15. To win in Extra Time: If there is no winner following extra time, dead heat rules will apply to bets on this market.
16. Tryscorer Matchbets / Kicker Matchbets / To Score the Most Points Matchbets: Both players must be in the starting 15 for bets to stand. If there is no 'Tie' or 'Draw' selection offered and the result is a tie then all bets will be void.
17. Best Kicking Percentage Matchbets / Kicker Matchbets / To Score the Most Points Matchbets: Bets will be void if both players do not attempt at least 1 placed kick at goal.
18. Player Total Points / Perfect Kicking record: Bets will be void if the selected player does not attempt at least 1 placed kick at goal.
19. Top Tryscorer / Top Team Tryscorer / Top Points Scorer: dead heat rules apply.
20. Regular Season Team Matchbets: dead heat rules apply.
21. Head to Head: Any extra time will be counted for settlement purposes. In the result of a draw where no extra time is played, this market will be settled according to dead heat rules.
22. Man of the Match: for Rugby World Cup Man of the Match markets, the market will be settled based on the official 'Man of the Match' as determined by the Rugby World Cup official site. If the Rugby World Cup official site fails to declare an official Man of the Match for any reason, all bets will be void.

2. Rugby League Rules
 1. Unless otherwise stated, all rugby league bets are settled on 80 minutes' play plus any injury time.
 2. All bets on NRL matches will be settled on the official declared result including any extra time, except 'Match Betting', 'Point Spread (Handicap) Betting', 'Will There Be Extra Time?', 'Highest Scoring Half' and 'Half With Most Tries' markets (which will be settled on the basis of 80 minutes' play plus any injury time). In Point Spread (Handicap)/Line and Totals betting where the value selected is a whole number (e.g. 6.0), and the result lands on that number, then all wagers related to that line number will be refunded, and any such bet will be deemed an excluded leg for the purpose of any applicable parlay, which will be recalculated excluding that leg. The same rules apply for State of Origin and any other Australian Rugby League match where extra time is played.
 3. If the result of an NRL match after extra time is a draw, then the Dead Heat Rule will apply to all bets where a winner has not been officially declared. All winning margin bets, including Dozen Winning Margins, will be deemed unsuccessful bets as neither team has won the match.

The same rules apply for State of Origin and any other Australian Rugby League match where extra time is played.

3. If the result of an NRL match after extra time is a draw, then the Dead Heat Rule will apply to all bets where a winner has not been officially declared. All winning margin bets, including Dozen Winning Margins, will be deemed unsuccessful bets as neither team has won the match.
4. If a match is postponed, bets will stand until 48 hours from the original kick off (local time of match), after which time they will be void.
5. If the venue is changed from the one advertised, all bets on that match will still have action (unless it is also postponed to over 48 hours from scheduled kick off)
6. Any parlay bet reduced by an abandoned, postponed or re-arranged match will stand on the remaining selections.
7. If a match starts but is abandoned before its completion, all bets will be void unless an official result is declared by the applicable governing body. Where an official result has been declared by the official governing body, that official result will govern match and point spread (handicap) market settlement but all other markets will be void unless their result has already been determined at the point of abandonment (i.e. at the point of abandonment, it would not have been possible for the outcome of the bet to change had the match continued to its natural conclusion). By way of example, if 37 points have been scored at the time a match is abandoned: (i) a bet placed on 35 points or more to be scored would be settled as a winning bet, (ii) a bet placed on 30-35 points to be scored would be settled as a losing bet and (iii) a bet placed on 40-45 points to be scored would be void. In such circumstances, bets on last try scorer / team to score last / team to score last try / last scoring play would all be void.
8. Outright Bets: all bets placed on outright markets will be settled on official tournament results. For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur then all bets on that competitor are void and monies will be returned. Any bets placed after a points deduction may have prices adjusted accordingly.
9. NRL & Super League Outright / Regular Season Outright / Top 2 / 4 / 8 Finish: All In Betting. Any Team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter for resulting purposes. Any loss of titles after the completion of the Grand Final will be deemed null and void and all bets will stand. All outright markets which state "Regular Season" (or similar) are deemed to mean the official standings of teams after all matches of the predetermined season are played and before any playoff matches have commenced.
10. NRL & Super League Wooden Spoon: This market is settled on the team which has the least wins for the season. A draw is considered as half a win. In the event of more than one team having the same number of wins, the outcome will be determined by the worst 'for and against' points total. Points deducted because of breaches of rules and regulations are excluded for resulting purposes. All In. Win Only.
11. To Miss Top 2 / 4 / 8: For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur, then all bets on that competitor will be void.
12. Tournament Tries/Points: Bets will apply to all playing time (including any extra time) in any match where an official result is declared.
13. Tryscorers: All bets will be refunded if they were placed on players not included in the official match day 17. All players that are named in the match day 17 will be considered 'All In' for all try scorer markets (including "First Tryscorer" and "First Team Tryscorer" markets).
14. First/Last Tryscorer: In the event of a penalty try being the first / last try scored, we will pay out on the penalty try option if offered. If the penalty try option is not offered we pay on the next tryscorer for first try or preceding tryscorer for last try. For xth try betting if the penalty try option is not offered we pay on the next tryscorer i.e. if the second try scored in a match is a penalty try and the third try is scored by Paul Smith, then Paul Smith will be deemed the winner for the second and third tries. If there is no try scored after the penalty try then this market will be void.
15. First 2nd Half Tryscorer: If a player is included in his team's matchday 17-man squad, all bets on that player will stand regardless of whether the player is on the field for the first 2nd half try or not.
16. To win in Extra Time: If there is no winner following extra time, dead heat rules will apply to bets on this market.
17. Tryscorer Matchbets / Kicker Matchbets / To Score the Most Points Matchbets: Both players must be in the starting 13 for bets to stand. If there is no 'Tie' or 'Draw' Selection offered and the result is a tie then all bets will be void.

4. All bets on soccer are automatically settled on the basis of 90 minutes play unless otherwise stated for that particular market. 90 minutes play includes time added on by referee for stoppages. The only exceptions are for matches that are played for a lesser duration (e.g. 60, 70 or 80) as agreed by the laws of the competition in which they are competing or agreed by both sides prior to kick-off. In such cases, if the match is played in the traditional format of two halves, all bets will be settled at the end of the agreed game length which includes time added on by the referee for stoppages whether the game length is advertised by FanDuel Sportsbook or not. If the game is played in an unusual format (e.g. 3 or 4 periods) then all half-time markets will be voided but all other markets will be settled on the basis of the score at the end of the match (including any time added on by the referee for stoppages).

5. "Normal Time" refers to the full length of a game (usually 90 minutes, including time added on by the referee for stoppages) and excludes any extra time or penalty shootouts.

7. Settlement will be at the price prevailing at the time the bet was placed and confirmed. Dates and kick-off times of matches shown on our website are for guidance purposes only. Bets will be accepted up until the advertised kick-off time.
8. If a parlay is reduced by non-runners the bet will stand with the reduced number of legs.
9. FanDuel Sportsbook reserves the right to void or stand any bet inadvertently accepted after the betting has closed or where the event was resolved or at a stage where the customer could have any indication of the outcome.
10. There is a small possibility that we will inadvertently offer soccer bets in respect of which it is impossible for the outcome to occur (for example, we continue to offer bets on a player to be the first goal scorer in a match after that player has been substituted). While we have implemented systems which aim to prevent this from occurring, in the small number of circumstances where it does, we will void the bets in question (and return the relevant stakes to customers accordingly).
11. For head-to-head markets where there is a draw/tie option offered. If the market ends in a tie, bets on all other selections will be losers.
12. Any bets involving players to be carded; only cards awarded when the player is active in the match will count. Bookings of managers, coaches or players off the field of play will not count, Only cards shown to players currently on the pitch will count.

2. VAR

1. To the extent that a video assistant referee ("VAR") is consulted, the event which led to the referral will, for the purposes of these rules, be deemed to have occurred at the actual time of its occurrence (rather than the time on which the relevant referral, or decision, was made).
2. Where we have settled a bet and, due to a subsequent VAR decision, it becomes apparent that such settlement was inaccurate, we reserve the right to reverse such settlement (provided that the VAR decision occurred prior to the conclusion of the match or other timeframe relating to the bet).
3. Bets which are placed between the occurrence of an incident which leads to a VAR review and the related VAR decision will be deemed void unless: (i) the VAR review (and subsequent decision) did not ultimately alter the decision made by the on-field officials or (ii) the VAR review (and subsequent decision) altered the decision made by the on-field officials but did not have any material influence on the bet(s) in question. All bets which were not materially influenced by the VAR review (and subsequent decision) will stand.
4. In order to eliminate any doubt, we will consider the VAR as having been used if this is understood from the referee's gestures (e.g. hand gestures or stopping the match to review the incident themselves) and/or VAR usage is confirmed by the match report issued by the official governing body who is ultimately responsible for oversight of the applicable match. In cases where it is unclear whether the VAR has been used due to missing TV coverage and/or conflicting reports, FanDuel Sportsbook will settle the bets based on the information acquired from feed providers and generally reputable online sources (acting reasonably).

3. Abandoned, Postponed, Venue Changed or Unplayed Matches

1. If a match is postponed, all undetermined bets will be voided as long as the match does not start before 23:59 local time (or if FanDuel Sportsbook believes that a match will not have started by such time) on its scheduled date.
2. Fixtures that are rearranged before the scheduled kick off date will not be regarded as postponements and all bets will stand, as long as the rescheduled date is within 72 hours of the original kick off time.
3. If the venue of a match is other than what is indicated on our website, the bet will stand provided the match has not been switched to the opponent's ground, in which case the match will be declared void. Notwithstanding this rule, in major international tournaments (e.g. World Cup, European Championships), all venues will be deemed neutral. If the scheduled venue of a match is changed, including if the venue changes to a new venue in a different country, all bets will stand.
4. If a match starts but is later abandoned, all undetermined bets will be voided as long as the match is not played to a finish before midnight local time on its scheduled date.
5. For major tournaments (such as the World Cup), if a game is delayed beyond midnight local time, all bets will stand and be settled once the game is played, as long as the game is played to a finish within 72 hours.

4. Late Bets

1. In relation to soccer markets that are scheduled to be turned in-play, FanDuel Sportsbook aims to use its reasonable endeavors to turn such markets in-play at kick-off and to suspend such markets on the occurrence of a Material Event (see definition of "Material Event" below). However, FanDuel Sportsbook does not guarantee that markets will be suspended and turned in-play at kick-off.
2. If a market is scheduled to be turned in-play but FanDuel Sportsbook fails to suspend the market at kick-off and the market is not turned in-play at any time during the match, all bets placed after the scheduled time of the kick-off will be void UNLESS it can be established that the bet was actually placed before the actual time of kick-off.
3. If a market is scheduled to be turned in-play but FanDuel Sportsbook fails to suspend the market at kick-off, but the market is turned in-play at a later time during the match, all bets placed after the scheduled time of the kick-off will stand. However, the price may be adjusted by FanDuel Sportsbook and the bets may be settled in accordance with the correct price at the time on which the relevant bet was placed (such price to be determined by FanDuel Sportsbook, acting reasonably).
4. For the purpose of this rule, a "Material Event" shall mean a goal being scored, a penalty being awarded, a player being sent off, or a VAR decision.

5. Terminology

1. Official Opta Data will be used to settle player prop markets, see definition's below.

4. For the purpose of this rule, a "Material Event" shall mean a goal being scored, a penalty being awarded, a player being sent off, or a VAR decision.

5. Terminology

1. Official Opta Data will be used to settle player prop markets, see definition's below.
2. Offside is awarded to the player deemed to be in an offside position where a free kick is awarded. If two or more players are in an offside position when the pass is played, the player considered to be most active and trying to play the ball is given offside.
3. With respect to "Tackles", a tackle is defined as where a player connects with the ball in a ground challenge where he successfully takes the ball away from the player in possession.
4. The tackled player must clearly be in possession of the ball before the tackle is made.
5. A tackle won is deemed to be where the tackler or one of his team-mates regains possession as a result of the challenge, or that the ball goes out of play and is "safe".
6. A tackle lost is where a tackle is made but the ball goes to an opposition player.
7. Both are deemed as successful tackles, however the outcome of the tackle (won or lost) is different based on where the ball goes after the tackle.
8. It is not a tackle, when a player cuts out a pass by any means.
9. Missed Tackles is where a player attempts to challenge for the ball and does not make it - it is calculated by adding fouls with an attempted tackle qualifier to the number of times a player is beaten by a dribble (challenge lost).
10. Clearance is a defensive action where a player kicks the ball away from his own goal with no intended recipient.
11. Interception is where a player reads an opponent's pass and intercepts the ball by moving into the line of the intended pass.
12. Blocked pass is where a player tries to cut out an opposition pass by any means. Similar to an interception except there is much less reading of the pass.
13. Block is where a player blocks a shot on target from an opposing player.
14. Cards are collected as yellow, second yellow or red card. Where possible, cards are cross checked against official (referee) reports to match the official statistics, unless these are clearly incorrect.
15. Crosses can be defined as any Intentional played ball from a wide position intending to reach a teammate in a specific area in front of the goal.
16. A Shot is defined as any goal attempt.
17. A Shot on target is defined as any goal attempt that a) goes into the net regardless of intent - for Goals only b) is a clear attempt to score that would have gone into the goal but for being saved by goalkeeper or is stopped by a player who is the last man with the goalkeeper having no chance of preventing the goal (last line block). Shots directly hitting the frame of the goal are not counted as shots on target unless the ball goes in and is awarded as a goal. Shots blocked by another player, who is not the last man, are not counted as shots on target.
18. A foul is defined as any infringement that is penalized as foul play by the referee. For a foul to be awarded, play must be stopped and a free kick must be given. If the referee plays advantage and later distributes a yellow card once the ball goes out of play this will not count towards a foul as a free kick was never awarded. Offsides do not count as fouls.
19. A Foul Won is defined when a player wins a free kick or penalty for their team after being fouled by an opposing player. There are no fouls won for a handball, dive, back pass, illegal restart, dissent, GK 6-second violation or by obstruction where a free kick is concerned.
 1. Handball - A deliberate hand ball by an opposition player
 2. Dive - A deliberate attempt for an opposition player to deceive the referee and win a free kick
 3. Back Pass - A pass picked up by a goalkeeper when played from a teammate
 4. Illegal Restart - An opposition player has consecutive touches directly after a dead ball situation
20. A pass is defined as any intentional played ball from one player to another. Passes include open play passes, goal kicks, corners and free kicks played as pass - but exclude crosses, keeper throws and throw-ins. All Player Passes bets are settled on the basis of 90 minutes' play (plus injury time) unless otherwise stated. For any Player Passes markets, all bets placed on players that are not part of the starting 11 will be void.
21. A goalkeeper save is defined as a goalkeeper preventing the ball from entering the goal with any part of their body when facing an intentional attempt on goal from an opposition player. An attempt on goal that hits a defending player before being collected by the goalkeeper is not defined as a save and will be registered as a block. A touch from a keeper that is subsequently cleared by a defender is not defined as a save. Saves have the following attributes:
 1. Body Part - Hands/Feet/Body
 2. Save Type - Caught/Collected/Parried Safe/Parried Danger Area/Fingertip
 3. Goalkeeper Position - Diving/Standing/Reaching/Stopping
22. Chance Created: A player will be credited with a Chance Created if they play the final pass leading to the recipient of the ball having an attempt at goal (Key Pass), or if they are credited with an assist. Where the final pass prior to a shot is blocked or deflected, this will not be credited as a Key pass.
23. Goal Involvement - A player will be credited with a goal involvement if they score or assist a goal.

2. Overview of Specific Markets

1. Goalscorer Markets

1. First/Last Goalscorer

1. Own goals do not count for settlement of first/last goalscorer bets. If any goal is an own goal, the result of the following goalscorer market will count for the settlement of the original one - e.g. second goal of the game is an own goal. The scorer of the third goal will be settled as the winner for both the second goalscorer and third goalscorer markets. If the last goal of the game is an own goal, then the second last goal of the game will be considered the winner for the Last Goalscorer market.

2. Bets taken on first goalscorer will be void if that player does not take part in the game or if they come on after the first goal is scored.

3. Every effort is made to quote first/last player to score odds for all possible players. However, odds for other players are available on request and will count as winners if they score the first/last goal even if they are not named in our lists.

4. Bets on last goalscorer will be void if that player does not take part in the game or does not come on as a substitute. In the event of a dispute over the award of a goal for first/last goalscorer or scorer special purposes, settlement will be in accordance with the result given by governing body of that league within 24 hours of the final whistle. Any subsequent changes to the result will be ignored for settlement purposes.

1. First & Anytime assists

1. Data provided by Opta will be used to settle all assist markets.

2. An assist is defined by the final touch (pass, pass-come-shot or any other touch) leading to the recipient of the ball scoring a goal.

3. If the final touch (as defined above) is deflected by an opposition player, the initiator is only given an assist if the receiving player was the likely intended destination of the touch before the deflection.

4. If a shot on goal is blocked by an opposition player, is saved by a goalkeeper, or hits the woodwork, and a goal is scored directly from the rebound, then an assist is awarded, unless the resulting goal is scored by the same player who had the initial shot, in which case no assist is awarded.

5. If a player shoots or passes the ball and forces an opposing player to put the ball in their own net (Own Goal), then an assist is awarded to the attacking player.

6. For a penalty or a free-kick, the player winning the penalty or free-kick (by being fouled or causing a handball) is awarded an assist if a goal is directly scored, but not if they take it themselves, in which case no assist is awarded.

7. Bets taken on first assist will be void if that player does not take part in the game or if he comes on after the first goal is scored (and where an assist is awarded for that goal).

8. For the first assist market only, if a player enters the field of play after the first goal is scored (and where an assist is awarded for that goal), the bet will be voided. If a player is sent off or substituted before the first goal is scored (and where an assist is awarded for that goal) bets on that selection are deemed as losers.

3. Spread Betting (3-way)

1. For the purpose of deciding results on spread betting, the actual score of the match (Team A v Team B) is adjusted for the spread. If Team A or Team B are selected then the spread adjustment applies to the goals scored by that team. If the draw is selected then the spread adjustment applies to

3. Spread Betting (3-way)

1. For the purpose of deciding results on spread betting, the actual score of the match (Team A v Team B) is adjusted for the spread. If Team A or Team B are selected, then the spread adjustment applies to the goals scored by that team. If the draw is selected then the spread adjustment applies to Team A.

2. For example, spread markets are shown as:

1. Team A (-1)

2. 7/2 Draw (-1) 3/1

3. Team B (+1) 8/15

4. If Team A win by 2 or more goals then all bets on Team A (-1) will be winners. Bets on the Draw (-1) and Team B (+1) will be losers. (e.g., Team A win 2-0 so becomes Team A 1-0 after the -1 adjustment so Team A are the spread winners.)

5. If Team A win by exactly 1 goal, then all bets on Draw (-1) will be winners. Bets on Team A (-1) and Team B (+1) will be losers (e.g., Team A 1-0 becomes 0-0 after the -1 adjustment to the home team so it's a spread draw)

6. If the match ends in a draw or Team B win by any number of goals, then all bets on Team B (+1) will be winners. Bets on Draw(-1) and Team A (-1) will be losers. (e.g., Team A 1-1 Team B becomes Team A 1-2 Team B after the +1 adjustment to Team B so Team B are the spread winners).

11. Card Index Match Bet refers to which team gets the most Card Index points during the match.

12. For the avoidance of a doubt, the award of a straight red card will, for settlement purposes, be deemed to amount to the award of a single card.

2. If the nominated player achieves the stated stipulation in the selection, then the selection will be settled as a winner (e.g. if the selection is Harry Kane to have 1 or more assists in each half and he has an assist in the first half and an assist in the second half, this would be settled as a winner).
3. If the nominated player plays no part in the first half of the match, or indeed any part of the match, then the selection is void (e.g. if the selection is Harry Kane to score 1 or more goals in both halves and Harry Kane is a substitute, but comes on during or after half time, or plays no part whatsoever, the selection would be void).
4. If the nominated player plays any part of the first half, and fails to achieve the stated first half stipulation, then the selection is a loser regardless of the duration of their participation in either the first or second half (e.g. if the selection is Harry Kane to have 1 or more shots on target in each half, and he starts the match/comes on during the first half and fails to register a shot on target during the first half, this selection will be a loser regardless of his participation in the second half).

1. The handicap is applied to the final result of the match and the team with the most goals after the handicap has been applied will be the winner. If the number of goals for each team are level after the handicap has been applied, it will result in a push with the stake being returned.

2. Example: Team A -2.0, Team B +2.0

1. If Team A win by three or more goals then all bets on Team A will be winners and bets on Team B will be losers.

2. If Team A win by exactly two goals then all bets on the market will be pushed and the bet stake returned on both sides

3. If Team A win by exactly one goal, the match ends in a draw or Team B win the match then all bets on Team B will be winners and bets on Team A will be losers.

2. (ii) Half ball handicaps (e.g. Team A -0.5, Team A -1.5, Team A -2.5)

1. The handicap is applied to the final result of the match and the team with the most goals after the handicap has been applied will be the winner.

2. Example: Team A -1.5, Team B +1.5

1. If Team A win by two or more goals then all bets on Team A will be winners and bets on Team B will be losers.

2. If Team A win by exactly one goal, the match ends in a draw or Team B win the match then all bets on Team B will be winners and bets on Team A will be losers.

3. (iii) Split ball handicaps (e.g. Team A -0 & -0.5, Team A -0.5 & -1.0, Team A -1.0 & -1.5)

1. A split ball handicap is where the level of favoritism is between a half ball and a whole ball. In this case, your stake is being split equally between the whole ball and half ball handicaps.

2. Example: Team A -1.0 & -1.5, Team B +1.0 & +1.5

1. If you place a $100 bet on Team A -1.0 & -1.5 then your bet is split into two $50 bets. The first bet is on the Whole Ball Handicap (Team A -1.0) and the second bet is on the Half Ball Handicap (Team A -1.5)

2. If Team A win by two or more goals then all bets on Team A will be winners and bets on Team B will be losers.

3. If Team A Win by exactly one goal then the stake on Team A -1.0 will be refunded and the stake on Team A -1.5 will be a loser. The stake on Team B +1.0 will be refunded and the stake on Team B +1.5 will be a winner.

4. If the match ends in a draw or Team B win the match then all bets on Team B will be winners and bets on Team A will be losers.

5. Own goals do not count towards any player totals. If an own goal is scored by a player on Team A, the goal will be added to Team B's total goals as per normal rules.

6. For FanDuel Soccer Specials bets which have been placed on the method of the first (or any other) goal (e.g. header, shot from outside the penalty area etc.), any own goals will be disregarded (i.e. for the purposes of such any such bets, own goals will be deemed not to have occurred). For example, if you have placed a FanDuel Soccer Specials bet on the first goal to be scored via a header, your bet will be successful if: (i) the first goal was an own goal which came off a player's knee and (ii) the second goal was an ordinary goal scored via a header.

7. Any FanDuel Soccer Specials bets involving woodwork to be hit require that the ball hits the frame of the goal. Any shot that hits the frame multiple times (e.g. bar and left post) only count as hitting the woodwork once. Hit woodwork is always collected for the attacking team (and the player, who performed the last action), even when the ball hits the frame coming from a defensive back pass.

11. For FanDuel Soccer Specials bets involving two or more occurrences, those occurrences must take place at separate times for the FanDuel Soccer Specials bet to be successful. For example, a FanDuel Soccer Specials bet on a header to be scored and a goal to be scored from outside the penalty area will only be successful if a goal is scored via a header and separate goal is scored from outside the penalty area.

12. Any FanDuel Soccer Specials bets involving free-kick goals must be scored directly from a free-kick. For the avoidance of doubt, a goal will be deemed to have been scored directly from a free kick if the individual who takes the free kick is awarded the applicable goal (even if the ball touched another player before it crossed the goal line). Penalties do not count as free kicks.

13. For any bets involving a penalty to be scored and/or missed (including FanDuel Soccer Specials bets), if there is a retake of the first penalty, we will settle this market on the result of the retaken penalty. This may include several retakes until the sequence is finished.

Extra-time does not count nor do cards shown after the final whistle count towards the total. Only cards shown to players currently on the field of play will count. Cards shown to managers or substitutes will not count towards any total.
19. For any FanDuel Soccer Specials bets placed on the total number of cards to be awarded (e.g., in total, to a team or to a single player / group of players), a player who has been shown two yellow cards (and is therefore ultimately shown a red card) will be deemed, for settlement purposes, to have been shown two (rather than three) cards.
20. For any FanDuel Soccer Specials bets involving corners, only corners that are actually taken will count. If a corner is re-taken, it will only count as one corner.

27. If a soccer match is abandoned after it has started, we will settle FanDuel Soccer Specials bets which have already been unequivocally determined at the time on which the match is abandoned. Any FanDuel Soccer Specials bets which have not been unequivocally determined at the time of abandonment will be void unless FanDuel has knowledge that the match has been rescheduled to be played within three days of its original start date (local time) (in which circumstances the bet shall apply to the rescheduled match).
